Cyprus National Day celebrated on Euro Channel TV

Bucharest, October 6 – Euro Channel TV broadcasts a series of programs dedicated to the National Day of the Republic of Cyprus.

The beginning of October has brought together important people for an important and official event held in Bucharest – the celebration of the National Day of the Republic of Cyprus. The reception took place at Hilton Hotel and gathered high international and national guests, such as: H.E. Ambassador of the Republic of Cyprus – Mr. Spyros Attas, and H.E. Ambassador of the Hellenic Republic – Mr. Georgios Poukamissas.

„Cyprus, as the rest of the Hellenic world, connects to Romania through tradition, history, and friendship. [...] Many of our people have studied in Romania, and now, after the integration of the two Republics in the European Union, there is a vivid community of Romanians working productively in the Republic of Cyprus, enriching the economy, as well as our entire society”, stated H.E. Ambassador of the Republic of Cyprus in Romania, Mr. Spyros Attas.

Euro Channel TV invites you to watch Teme la zi (Daily headlines), the program which offers more details about the event: on Wednesday (October 7), and on Saturday (October 10), at 20:30 p.m.
