

Bilateral Chamber of Commerce and Industry Romania-Cyprus

General presentation

The Bilateral Chamber of Commerce and Industry Romania – Cyprus (BCCIIRC) is a non profit, non governmental and politically independent organization.

The Chamber was formed in 2004 by several foreign and domestic legal and natural persons in order to promote its members' interests in developing the trade, services and industry both on local and bilateral level, in accordance with the market economy's rule.

Our organization cooperates with state organizations on local and central level, with both countries' national or local chambers of commerce and industry and with other nongovernmental institutions or organizations.

The Chamber has become member of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania and Bucharest and adhered to the Union of Bilateral Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Romania.

Objective

The main objective of BCCIRC is to support, to mediate and to represent the interests of its members in the relation with Romanian and Cypriot authorities, with economic agents, with public institutions and non-governmental organisations. The purpose was to create a structure which would facilitate the commercial exchange between these two countries, acting as a “firm ground” for Romanian and Cypriot businessmen to consolidate their investments.
